

HDHP General Rules

as of June 16, 2025

Horsemanship Rules

1. HDHP Authorized Trainers are responsible for ensuring safe conduct of all horses and riders under their aegis.
2. Minors must wear an ASTM helmet anytime while mounted. ASTM helmets are encouraged for all riders, especially when jumping.
3. Riders may only jump when supervised by an HDHP Authorized Trainer.
4. At all times, anyone riding must be supervised by an HDHP Authorized Trainer or an adult the trainer designates.

As a result of these rules, trainers have specific obligations that they must meet:

- Trainers must have and are expected to abide by and enforce a written rule regarding ASTM helmet use for their riders.
- Trainers are responsible for having any riders who do not have a horse boarded with HDHP sign the HDHP Liability Release and Waiver. Trainers must keep these forms on site and available to HDHP to audit at any time. Forms must be kept for at least one year from the date the rider is no longer a client.
- Trainers are expected to uphold and enforce HDHP rules.
- Trainers are required to have written rules for their clients to follow. HDHP has the right to request a copy of the trainer's printed rules.
